

ARTIST BIO

Keisha Mrotek is a printmaker and a book artist working in the Bay Area. She uses news stories and classical artwork to depict injustices in the world such as misogyny, racism, classism, poverty, and homophobia. She relies on her artwork as a way to vocalize her frustrations, usually through humor.

Keisha will receive her Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree from the Academy of Art University in May 2015. You can view her work at the Cannery Gallery in San Francisco until June 1st and at Manifest Justice, a large-scale pop-up art exhibition sponsored by Amnesty International in Los Angeles from May 1st through the 10th.
